Knosas, was the guest of Mrs. C. Blackwell the first of the week. First Annual Albuquerque Hospitality Mr. and Mrs. Myron Bailey of Detroit, Michigan, with their mother, Mrs. Philip Brand, are in the city for a few day the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey. Ball Feature for Wednesday of Fair Week

Albuquerque's First Annual Hospitality Ball, a social function which promises to outshine anything of the kind ever attempted in New Mexico, will be the feature of Wednesday evening of state fair week.

The first Hospitality hall will be held in the National Guard armory, which will be elaborately decorated for the occasion.

Music will be by the full Kilties' band, the finest musical organization that has ever appeared in New Mexico on any occasion. Mr. and Mrz. L. M. Raynolds returned Wednesday from a month's vacation spent in Idaho and points in Colerado. The Raynolds' are at home for the pres-ent at the Casa de Oro.

Appointmentes and service will be everything that the most exacting critic could demand. Colored attendants in uniform will wait on the guests. Four huge punch bowls will dispense refreshments, one being stationed on each of the four sides of the huge dancing floor.

The people of the state are invited to this hall. It is open to every fair visitor and to the people of Albuquerque. It is in fact a people's ball. Those who do not care to dance will have the large galleries for their use, and spectators at this function will have as good a time as the dancers. Tickets will be one dollar. They will be placed on sale during the coming week and may be had up to and including the evening of the ball, which will begin immediately after the close of the usual evening amusement program and spectacle at the state fair grounds.

Capt. J. H. Toulouse, of company G national guard, is in charge of the arrangements for the ball. He will be glad to answer questions about it.
